

SUMMARY OF CV: Gavriel Ayi Ayayi

Dr Gavriel Ayi Ayayi has an M. Sc. from University of Sherbrooke in Canada and a Ph.D. from the Ecole des Hautes Etudes Commerciales (HEC) of Montreal in Canada. He is associate professor of Financial Economics at Université du Québec at Trois Rivières. Before joining his actual position, he was the Holder of the Microfinance Chair of Banque Populaire and Director of the Globalization and Innovations at AUDENCIA School of Management in Nantes, France. He was also a professor at the John Molson Business School of Concordia University in Montreal, Canada, the Ted Roger Business School of Ryerson University in Toronto, Canada and a visiting professor in a numbers of universities.

Professor Ayayi has published articles in a number of well respected academic journals on venture capital, initial public offering, financial security laws and in microfinance. He acts as a referee for over 10 academic journals and research Consortiums and is on the editorial board of the African Finance Journal. He has presented and discussed numerous papers at various meetings of the Financial Management Association, the Eastern Finance Association, The Tilburg Finance Center, the European Financial Management Association, the Northern Finance Association the French Finance Association etc...

Professor Ayayi latest research and teaching interests are in microfinance, venture capital finance, Corporate Finance and the economics of Contracts. He supervises a number of Ph.D. and Master students in these fields.