

BOPELOKGALE SOKO

Ms Bopelokgale Soko is a Financial Sector Regulator. She is currently employed by the Botswana Stock Exchange as the Head of Listings and Trading Department. Her area of responsibilities includes among other supervision and regulation of listed entities as well as stock broking firms. Prior to that, Ms Soko has worked for the Central Bank of Botswana in the Banking Supervision Department where she was part of a team that supervised and regulated commercial banks, mutual funds and micro finance institutions

Ms Soko has consulted for the World Bank in the area of capital market development under the Mozambique Financial Sector Assistance Project. She has also participated in different committee under both the African Union and the Committee of SADC Stock Exchanges with the aim of developing regional stock market.

Ms Soko has a B Comm Degree from the University of Botswana, Degree in Business Administration (Honors) from the University of Stellenbosch Business School and a Masters in Business Administration (MBA) from the University of Stellenbosch Business School. Ms Soko is currently working toward her PhD with the University Of Cape Town's Graduate School Of Business. The main thrust of her research is to investigate the effects of different financial sector institutions on economic growth, development and poverty reduction in southern Africa.