

KANNYIRI THADIOUS BANYEN

Kannyiri Thadious Banyen is a Lecturer of Finance at the University for Development Studies' School of Business and Law, Ghana. He has served on the staff welfare committee of the University for Development Studies and as a District Coordinator in the University's Third Trimester Field Practical Program (TTFPP). Prior to his appointment as a lecturer, Kannyiri was a Teaching Assistant at the University of Ghana Business School.

Kannyiri has taught courses such as Advanced Corporate Finance (MCom), Financial Intermediation (MA), as well as Investment and Portfolio Management, Financial Risk Management, Fixed Income Securities, Private Equity Finance, Business Valuation, and Public Finance (Undergraduate); all at the University for Development Studies. He has previously handled tutorials in Investment Management and International Financial Markets (MBA II) as well as Business Finance and Financial Markets (Undergraduate) at the University of Ghana Business School.

Kannyiri holds an MPhil. Finance Degree and a BSc. Administration (Banking and Finance) Degree, both from the University of Ghana Business School (Ghana). He is a student member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants Ghana (ICAG) and is currently working towards a PhD in Business Administration Degree at the University of Cape Town's Graduate School of Business.

His research interest sprouts from Financial Markets and Institutions Analysis, Development Economics, Small Enterprise Development, and Behavioural Finance. His PhD. dissertation seeks to examine the nexus between banking profitability, stock market performance, and economic growth in emerging markets.