1. Mr. Keabecoe Motlhoioa

Keabecoe Motlhoioa started his career 28 years ago as a Laboratory Technician at Nestlé South Africa. Over the years Keabecoe has worked for various big-name corporations: for South African Breweries as a Packaging Manager and then an Operations Manager, for Nampak as an Hr Director and later as Managing Director. He later moved to Fedics Food Services as Managing Director until he finally decided to become an independent consultant specialising HR strategies, change management and transformation initiatives. Keabecoe is employed by Small Enterprise Development Agency (Seda), an agency of the Department of Trade and Industry in South Africa. He is the Executive Manager: Corporate Services responsible for ICT, Corporate Communication, Marketing, Stakeholder Relations, Information Management and Facilities Management.